

Snowline is Back to School

Making a Difference in the Community

The New Snowline Leadership Team

Serrano Freshman Orientation

Maria Hughes, the new principal at Vista Verde, welcomes Miguel Salcedo on the first day of school and answers questions from his mother, Zoraida Salcedo.

Marissa Blanchard and Sammi Platts are welcomed by Peer Ambassadors Kendra Wade and Christman Bowers.

Freshman Orientation was held at Serrano High School on August 5, 2009. Incoming freshman were welcomed by Peer Ambassadors as soon as they stepped on campus and cheered on as they walked through a greeting line when they entered the gym.

"I'm excited to be here and make new friends," said Marissa Blanchard. Sammi Platts added she is looking forward to "meeting new people and mixing it up."

SNOWLINE JOINT UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT PURPOSE STATEMENT

We are dedicated to making a difference in the Snowline Learning Community by developing successful individuals and educational excellence through a passionate commitment to collaboration and continuous improvement.

CORE VALUES

Snowline is committed to providing high-quality service to the entire diverse Snowline Learning Community (students, staff, families, and community members) through our core values:

- Effective Teamwork
- Respectful Relationships
- Comprehensive Safety
- Collaborative Communication
- Shared Accountability

Buses Arrive First Day of School

The District's fleet of 55 buses is on the road again picking up and dropping off Snowline students. Approximately 51% of Snowline students ride the bus each day.

Excited and ready, Shaylee Perez is greeted by her Kindergarten teacher, Mrs. Stephanie Levine, as her mother, Terri Perez, looks on.

Teachers Return to Work

Teachers returned to work the day before school started, to meet and plan for the upcoming year. Pictured are: Hailee Griffith, Niki Pratt, Becky Grijalva, and Jeni Boulanger.
